Prayers of adoration and thanksgiving..... concluding with the Lord's prayer

Our Father who is in Heaven, Hallowed be your Name
Your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For yours is the kingdom, the power and the Glory forever and ever. Amen. Matthew 6:9-13

Communion

Lord this is your feast, prepared by your longing, spread at your command, attended at your invitation, blessed by your own word, distributed by your own hand, the undying memorial of your sacrifice upon the cross, the full gift of your everlasting love, and its perpetuation till the end of time.

Lord, this is Bread of heaven, Bread of life, that, whosoever eats shall hunger no more. And this, the cup of pardon, healing, gladness, strength, that whosoever drinks, thirsts no more.

So may we come, O Lord, to thy table. Lord Jesus, come to us.

“They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.” Acts 2:46,47

Time to pray and search my heart. If you know and love the Lord Jesus confess any sins that hinder that walk with him or your brother and sister in the Lord.

Let us take a piece of bread (This is his body broken for me)

... and a sip of juice (this cup is the new covenant in His blood shed for me)

and rejoice that we are united to Christ by his Spirit and also united to each other by that same Spirit. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 1Co 12:13

Reflective prayer

O God, by whose providence the duties of man are variously ordered: Grant to us all in this church such a spirit that we may labour heartily to do our work in our several stations. Teach us to put to good account whatever talents thou hast lent us, that as good and faithful servants we may enter into the joy of our Lord, even your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ.
